Training on Alternative Dispute Resolution and New Laws at FJA:

Efficient courts are essential for effective governance: DG, FJA

There is always learning: Fakhar Hayat

Islamabad: Access to justice in the country can be improved by modernizing judicial system/procedures, enhancing skills, enriching knowledge and imparting information to the judges and other stakeholders of the justice sector about alternative methods for resolving disputes, coupled with the emerging new legislation.

Mr. Fakhar Hayat, Director General, expressed these views during the inaugural ceremony at Federal Judicial Academy on the commencement of a one-week training course on “Skill-Based ADR Training and New Laws” for Civil Judges-cum-Magistrates from all over Pakistan, Azad Jammu and Kashmir and Gilgit-Baltistan on Monday.

He said, “A robust judicial system increases the confidence of the litigant public. Alternative Dispute Resolution is gaining increasing importance within the country. There is no definite time for learning, there is no embargo on learning. One must always be ready to assimilate new knowledge. There is always time for learning. This one week training is a wonderful opportunity for all of you to learn and share knowledge and professional wisdom with each other.”

Twenty-six judicial officers from all over Pakistan, Azad Jammu and Kashmir and Gilgit-Baltistan are attending this one week training course.
