Syed Kausar Abbas Zaidi says courts are last resort for people

Judge, ATC, Islamabad, asks judicial officers to exercise patience to listen to litigants

Islamabad: Syed Kausar Abbas Zaidi, Judge, Anti-Terrorism Court, Islamabad, said that courts were as the last resort for the deprived and denied people, therefore, judicial officers must exercise the utmost patience to listen to them when they appear before them in the court.

He expressed these views in the certificate awarding ceremony at the conclusion of a one-week training Course on “How to be an Effective Senior Civil Judge” for Senior Civil Judges from all over Pakistan Gilgit-Baltistan held at the Federal Judicial Academy, Islamabad, on Saturday.

He said, “Being a judge was not only a privilege for all of us who have opted for it but also a profession with awesome and delicate responsibility. Judicial disposition, patience, wisdom, humanity, humility, listening to the litigant public and lack of bias are essential ingredients to be an effective and successful judge. “

He said, “The post of a Senior Civil Judge is very important in the scheme and organizational hierarchy of the district judiciary. He plays a bridging role between the District and Sessions Judge, judicial officers, among others. His effective role can inspire effectiveness among others for effective organizational performance. I hope that this well-designed course would be highly effective for them in the field.”

Mr. Fakhar Hayat, Director General of the Academy, presented his welcome speech, an overview of the training course and a brief introduction of the learned chief guest.

“Keeping in view the emerging changes and challenges around the globe, we must change ourselves and for effective service delivery,” he remarked.

Twenty three Senior Civil Judges from all over Pakistan and Gilgit-Baltistan were awarded certificates in the ceremony at the Academy
