Capable court personnel vital for district judiciary courts: DG, FJA

Professional development of Superintendents necessary to increase efficacy: Fakhar Hayat

Professional development of Superintendents of District and Sessions Courts who are regarded as the chief ministerial officers and have to play multifaceted roles at district level, is very necessary to increase efficacy, improve transparency and enhance public service.

While inaugurating a one-week training course on the topic “How to be an Effective Superintendent”, Fakhar Hayat, Director General of the Federal Judicial Academy said on Monday, “Superintendents are a hub of district judiciary and their linchpin role of superintendence requires them to be proactive and to create litigants, lawyers and court supporting court staff-friendly environment both with their decent personal and professional behavior.”

He maintained, “District and Sessions Judges who usually remain extremely busy, they can’t deliver effective and expeditious justice without efficient and effective Superintendents.”

Twenty-four Superintendents of the Sessions Courts from all over Pakistan, Azad Jammu and Kashmir and Gilgit-Baltistan are participating in this one week training course at the Academy.
