

Knowledge sharing is the first step for a way forward: Registrar, Lahore High Court
Syed Khurshid Anwar Rizvi urges judicial officers to promote a 'judicial family' spirit

Islamabad: The Concluding Ceremony for the training course on "Case and Court Management and New Laws" took place at the Federal Judicial Academy on Saturday, October 28, 2017, in which Syed Khurshid Anwar Rizvi, Registrar, Lahore High Court was invited as the chief guest.

Addressing the closing ceremony, Syed Khurshid Anwar Rizvi, Registrar, Lahore High Court, expressed appreciation to the Academy and participants for their commitment and hard work.

He stated that, "Knowledge sharing is the first step for a way forward. The Academy will continue to design and conduct the courses to enhance the proficiency and efficiency of the judicial officers in response to the needs of people in the country."

Mr. Rizvi sensitized the participants about the importance of case and court management and the building up of the family spirit amongst the judicial officers.

"Judicial Officers should promote a family spirit and promote all good things other occupational groups are trying to do," he remarked.

Shedding light on the history of the Federal Judicial Academy, the chief guest paid a glowing tribute to Justice (Retired) Amjad Ali Sheikh erstwhile Director General of the Academy for his tremendous contribution for the establishment of this Academy.

Presenting his welcome address, a brief introduction of the chief guest and an overview of the training course, Mr. Fakhar Hayat, DG of the Academy stated that, "The course helped the participants to enrich their knowledge and expand their vision."

Twenty one Civil Judges-cum-Magistrates from across Pakistan, Azad and Jammu and Kashmir and Gilgit-Baltistan were awarded certificates in the ceremony.
