

He is Additional District and Sessions Judge, from District Judiciary of Sindh. He is a Fellow, Society of Advanced Legal Studies (SALS), University of London, U.K and a Fellow (Law), European Scientific Institute (ESI). He holds a Ph. D (Law) from the University of Karachi, Sindh. He is Post-Doctoral (Law), from University of La-Laguna, Tenerife, Spain. He has been affiliated with Sindh Judicial Academy, Sindh as Visiting Faculty Member since the year, 2019. He has also conducted trainings on “Forensic Evidence for Judges” for the Judges of Sindh and Balochistan in the year, 2019 and 2021 at the Sindh Judicial Academy, Karachi in collaboration with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC). His areas of interest are Criminal Law, Justice Systems of the World, Forensic Evidence, and Cybercrimes. He produced many research papers individually, as well as, with the internationally renowned Researchers, Professors, Scholars and Judges, which have been published in national and international journals. His research papers, amongst others, cover the topics of “Reformation of Criminal Justice System of Pakistan”, “Admissibility of a video as evidence in a Court: Its presentation and Probative value” and “Impact of Defective Investigation and Prosecution on Trial”. His research predominantly focuses on the innovative approaches to improve the criminal justice system of Pakistan and the probative value of different kinds of forensic evidence. He has also presented two research papers in International Conferences in Spain. He also participated in several seminars, workshops and conferences, relating to various aspects of justice systems of Pakistan.